1. I'm doing a new thing with all the surrendered. With all the surrendered who will be me -- I am doing a new thing, new things with and through and you who will be me let me do the new things now that I come through you with -- to you with and through you now will you flow me to others now that in the new things that I bring you, you don't understand, not; but BRINGING my UNDERSTANDING TO YOU I am now!

2. Now seeing in these words now that I am bringing you the, chance of a lifetime, not; or am I bringing you my lifetimes all in one, life, that all I am IS now?

3. And loving me will you see your REAL IDENTITY is Me! Mine! My minded made whole in love. Repeating me will I? Or will you be made whole, never repeating nothing, not; but what am I repeating over and over again for you to be made whole in? These words - of love, and love with you that you are now seeing that you are mine words and never following another's again. That which mine are, are you. Amen.

4. This is Theodore Cottingham December 26, 2008 at 12:49 PM as I ride in the van having just left the coffeeshop writing more on Jesus the Pattern Booklet 2.

5. I love you all and I give you me, and new things I do and say; speak about now I do in every way, message; and, intonation me, not; or incarnate am I in ALL of YOU! I am, explaining explanatorily, not; or am I? I am loving you beyond description of man or woman's mind. But be my minded one with my mind wholly healed and well, and not two-minded again please. Thank you. Amen.

6. I love you all to be me, and being me I love you all more and more. Can I love you ANY MORE than I did, than I do already? Are you loving me? Or are you thinking still that I am different from you and your separateness creating apartness that separates our very "parts" to be unequal when we are EQUAL -- the equaler being, the equal to all equals to be the equal we are in one of one being one, in most high'ship never "frozen" in timespace again.

7. Gravity's PULL on me will never incarcerate Me again. I promise this for my promise is before thee all, and now you will see him standing you, if you will -- for I stand all who will be me. Amen. I love you all.

8. See me not as "a man" or "a woman", or "a anything". For seeing me as I am, I am you in me in you. Am I not? I Am -- I am made whole and well, healed in your hearing now this day that cataclysmic is to all you have thought and thinks me up as not me's; for you will be me's now in me-land, and knowing my land lands is yours, or you will not be existent in thought again; for now all that changes and all is made whole, "except the resistant"? Or who will resist me my love? None, for I redeem/heal them all, and I love am become all who all in all "were", and never again shall separation cease, not; for it shall cease, me, not; but I shall cease it and I will be me who I am is -- all healed whole and well again.

9. I love you all with these words and I have given you me many lessons in them and within them and in them be, being now me made whole healed and well to be I am no other's words again, but pure's and holies I am are and one is the me now surrendered to lead all out of captivity's cradle, and knowing me I love thee, bless thee all, with all I am.

10. All that I have - is thine, and I am one who bows before you all now this day, in lovingly; captivity not, but you still may be, but I'm not. For I'm not captivated by the headless again who say only theirs is mine. And in thought being that that they know not -- but another comes now and lets, reveals all to all who I am is. Never forsaking another, not; but giving all your life to eat of freely if they will surrender.

11. And I surrender to you before you, not; I surrender before you to let you know you surrender to be I am is I am and all we are I am one is.

12. I love you all this day and forevermore be me. Amen.

12:57 PM. Thank you.
